Two resign from the town council

AXMINSTER Town Council has been hit by two surprise resignations, including that of former mayor and community champion John Jeffery.

Councillors were officially informed at last night's (Monday) meeting that Mr Jeffery was retiring from local government after serving the town council for more than 30 years, including a stint as the town's First Citizen.

■ JOHN JEFFERY - standing down from Axminster Town Council after 30 years

■ IAN HALL - leaving the town council to concentrate on his work at County Hall and EDDC

He also served for 16 years as one of Axminster's representatives on East Devon District Council.

New county councillor Ian Hall, who also serves on EDDC, has also tendered his resignation.

Mr Jeffery, who followed his father, the late H.R. Jeffery, onto the local council, has decided the time has come to stand down so he can concentrate on his other passions in life and service to the community.

Mr Jeffery is greatly involved in Axminster Care Service and volunteers one day a week at Wonford Hospital, which he described as "one of the most pleasurable things I do".

He is also president of Axminster Carnival and is heavily locomotives and he wants to be able pursue this interest, particularly his connections with Seaton Tramway and Pecomama at Beer.

Mr Jeffery told Pulman's View: "There comes a time to stand back.

"Council work is now very difficult and I can serve the town in better ways."

In his letter of resignation Mr Hall said: "It is with regret that I have given notice that I will be standing down, with immediate effect, from representing Raymonds Hill on Axminster Town Council.

"I now represent the 'Raymonds Hill Ward' as district and now county councillor and need to represent all who live in the 'Axminster Division' equally as I now serve seven parish councils."

But his great passion is railways and

Tories maintain grip on East Devon

NEIL Parish has been re-elected as MP for Tiverton and Honiton - the constituency which covers Axminster - increasing his majority to more than 60 per cent.

■ NEIL PARISH - 'the Tories must do better'

Following his victory, Mr Parish said: "I would like to thank the people of Tiverton and Honiton for the support they have given me this evening."

"It makes you very humble. What I have learned through this election, and, yes, it is a handsome win, is there are issues here regarding education and the health service and they are things that we need to learn and to listen to."

Despite his victory Mr Parish was somewhat downbeat, as Conservatives lost seats nationwide.

Mr Parish said: "I think we probably will have to have a little look at how we came about our manifesto and what we put in it because that has to take some of the blame."

On the Conservative campaign, Mr Parish was even more critical: "I think if I was writing a school report, this election."

Labour saw its overall number of votes shoot up, cementing itself in second position in the constituency.

Former Honiton town mayor Caroline Kolek, who also ran two years ago, saw her share of the vote increase from 12.7 per cent to 27.1 per cent, polling 8,835 more votes than in 2015.

Whilst Mr Parish increased his share of vote, his majority was reduced by 355 votes - but in the neighbouring East Devon constituency, Hugo Swire saw his majority drop from more than 12,000 to a little over 8,000 as independent candidate Claire Wright who polled 21,270 votes, said: "I am over the moon to have increased my votes by 8,000. With seven candidates in the running I think this must be a pretty historic event."

NEWS FROM AROUND PULMAN'S COUNTRY... East Devon & South Somerset

River Cottage Canteens centralise their suppliers

RIVER Cottage has confirmed that they have centralised the sourcing of some of their produce following a review.

Claims were made to Pulman's Weekly News that the three River Cottage Canteens – located in Axminster, Bristol and Winchester respectively – had shifted away from using local suppliers, meaning that some vendors have been sidelined.

River Cottage proprietor Hugh Fearnley-Whittinghall explained that a review of the supply chain had been made over the last three months to ensure better control and consistency across the business.

He added: "We have made the decision to centralise some distribution, while continuing to source our produce from a wide variety of West Country producers.

"We are proud to be working with Wellocks, who are sourcing fantastic, seasonal, organic and foraged vegetables for us direct from farms in the West Country; with Aubrey Allen and Pipers Farm, two family-run meat businesses who are sourcing our free range and organic meats from farms within 50 miles of River Cottage; and with over a dozen other suppliers within the same radius who provide a variety of organic and sustainable produce to our kitchens.

"We will always continue to support local producers to bring you the best local, seasonal and sustainable produce that the area has to offer."

● THE news comes shortly after the River Cottage Canteen in Plymouth closed.

It was located in the trendy Royal William Yard and overlooked Plymouth Sound.

A River Cottage spokesman said: "We have taken the difficult decision to close our Plymouth Canteen after six years of trading in the great city. We have struggled with the site throughout and following the arrival of Rory Marthinusen, our new MD of River Cottage Canteen, we are focused on consolidation and growth in other areas.

"We are embarking on a new stage of the business including development at HQ and a collaboration with the renowned caterers Levy.

"We are extremely proud of the team who worked so hard for us and are hoping to offer the opportunity of relocation to our other Canteens in Bristol, Winchester and Axminster where appropriate positions are available.

"It has been a pleasure to be part of Royal William Yard and we want to thank the suppliers, producers and local community for supporting us."

The River Cottage HQ is located at Park Farm, Musbury, near Axminster.

Motorcyclist left in critical condition after crash

A MOTORCYCLIST has been left in a critical condition after a crash on the A3052 between Colyford and Lyme Regis on Sunday afternoon.

Police were notified of a two-vehicle crash at 3.53pm on Sunday, June 11th at Heathfield Cross, near the Westhayes Caravan Park, in Rousdon.

The collision involved a white Iveco Daily Panel Van and a white Triumph Dayton 675R motorcycle. The Triumph was on the main A3052, heading from the Lyme Regis direction towards Colyford and the Iveco was emerging from a minor road at Heathfield Cross.

Weather and road conditions at the time were believed to be dry with good visibility.

The Iveco emerged into the carriageway as the Triumph was approaching the crossroads, resulting in the Triumph hitting the Iveco initially to the offside and across the front of the vehicle.

The rider of the motorcycle suffered serious injuries and was airlifted to hospital where he remains in a critical condition.

Officers from Exeter Roads Policing Team and the Serious Collision Investigation Team attended the scene and the road remained closed for several hours.

Police are appealing for further witnesses to come forward by calling 101 and quoting log number DCP-20170611-0592.

Body found on beach at Culverhole Point

THE body of a man in his 60s was found on a beach near Seaton on Saturday afternoon (June 10th).

The police and coastguard were called at around 12:20pm after a two members of the public discovered the body.

Part of the beach was cordoned off whilst investigations were carried out.

The Lyme Regis RNLI lifeboat was launched at 2.35pm to assist coastguards and police in the recovery of a body from the beach at Culverhole Point, east of Seaton.

A team ashore removed the body and the lifeboat crew provided a shoreline escort until they reached the safety of Axmouth harbour. The lifeboat crew returned to Lyme Regis at 4.20pm.

No formal identification has yet been carried out on the body.

Concerns over 'energy barn'

RESIDENTS of Hawkchurch and the surrounding area are being invited to the village's next parish council meeting to hear plans for an 'energy barn' to be built near Pound Road.

A representative of Plutus Powergen, the company behind the plans, will give a presentation on the development of a 'flexible generation facility' at the village hall on June 20th from 8pm.

The facility would involve the installation of low carbon, renewable-diesel powered generators and transformers.

Hawkchurch Parish Council chairman Nicholas Over said: "The knowledge of this application being in the pipeline is already causing considerable concern within the parish and, I suspect, there will be a concerted effort to try and resist it coming to fruition."

Yeovil man sentenced to more than six years after burglaries guilty plea

A 44-YEAR-OLD man from Yeovil has been sentenced to six years and four months in prison after pleading guilty to a number of burglaries in Somerset and Dorset.

Jamie Spencer, from Goldcroft in Yeovil, was arrested in Weymouth in March following a joint investigation between Avon and Somerset Constabulary and Dorset Police.

He was charged with three burglaries in both Yeovil and Weymouth and pleaded guilty to the offences in April.

He was also sentenced for breaching his Drugs Rehabilitation Order (DRR), which was put in place in 2016 following previous convictions for dwelling burglary, and several vehicle and driving related offences.

The court heard that Mr Spencer admitted several other burglaries, which were taken into consideration.

PC Jim Card from Yeovil Police Station

said: "I hope this sentence, which is significant, reassures communities across Somerset and Dorset. "Having your home burgled is so distressing and intrusive. "We know that often the mental and emotional impact far outlasts the time it takes to clean up and replace possessions. "I hope that by admitting his offences and engaging with the DRR, Mr Spencer is able to break his cycle of offending. "There is support out there for those with a drug habit, and we will work with our partners to help those who wish to break their dependency and the crime cycle they become trapped in.

"However, we won't tolerate burglary and other invasive and distressing crimes."

Kingdom Hall murder

A HONITON man has been charged with the murder of Philip Ryan, who was found stabbed to death at Honiton's Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses last Tuesday.

Police have charged Keith Beviss, aged 54, who appeared at Exeter Magistrates Court on June 8th, where he spoke only to confirm his name, address and date of birth.

He was remanded in custody and is due to appear before the city's crown court on July 6th.

Police and ambulance crews were called to Kingdom Hall in Dowell Street at around 3.40pm on Tuesday, June 6th.

On their arrival they found 55-year-old electrician Philip Ryan deceased at the scene. He had sustained a number of stab wounds.

Philip owned Ryan Alarms and Electrical Services based in Westward Ho! and lived in the North Devon town with his wife Sandra, 56.

It is understood he was working at the hall when he was stabbed.

The family of Philip Ryan said: "Philip was a very kind, gentle and loving husband who will be greatly missed by all his family and friends."

"We are in a state of shock. There aren't any words to describe our pain."

A hat trick of awards for town crying team

HONITON town crier Dave Retter and his wife Kassa have returned from the South of England Town Crying Competition victorious.

The competition was held at Wimborne Minster and Dave received a trophy shield for second runner-up for his two cries – his best results in a town crying competition in his 21 years being a town crier.

Kassa won first place in the best dressed consort competition and thanked Honiton local Karen Wilson for making her wonderful outfit.

This was the sixth time Kassa has won the Best Dressed Companion at the South of England competition.

■ A TINY leg ring has helped prove that a reed warbler caught at Seaton Wetlands has travelled to Africa and back on numerous occasions.

Axe Estuary Ringing Group ring birds for conservation monitoring purposes and have been active on Axe Estuary reserves for more than ten years.

The code on the reed warbler's ring revealed that it was first caught on Seaton Wetlands as an adult in 2009, and has since been caught four times in the reed beds at Colyford Common.

East Devon District Council nature reserves manager James Chubb said: "It is remarkable that this tiny little bird has made such an incredible journey not just once, but at least nine times and each time we can be sure she is returning to the same small patch of reeds at Seaton Wetlands to feed and breed!"

"The Axe Estuary Ringing Group run regular public bird ringing sessions from the Discovery Hut and the data they gather is helping to piece together some of the stories behind the huge array of birds we see on site."

Bird ringing sessions at Seaton Wetlands are open to spectators and a full programme can be viewed on the Axe Estuary Ringing Group's web site.

On Saturday, June 17th, from 9am to 11am, the ringing group and the Countryside team are running a bird ringing event where participants will have behind the scenes access to the ringing process.

Spaces are £10 per person and can be booked online at www.wildeastdevon.co.uk

Hospital LoF AGM set for this Friday

AXMINSTER Hospital League of Friends promises "exciting things" for its AGM on Friday, June 16th.

The AGM, which is open to everyone, will be held in Axminster Guildhall from 6.30pm.

League secretary Ann Veit said: "There will be more about our new digital imaging X-ray equipment and other plans for keeping the hospital vibrant."

"This X-ray machinery is in the process of being commissioned, so it should not be too long before the benefits of the new equipment are being felt by patients and clinicians.

"The hospital's outpatient, consultant clinics, day surgery, ophthalmic procedures and numerous other therapies are growing and/or improving.

"Most of these departments have been supported financially by the league who continue to raise funds that will ensure the hospital remains active and continue to provide an invaluable service to the community."

Because the league has changed bank, members of the league paying their subscription by direct debit will need to change their mandate to the new banking details.

Members who have not yet done this can follow instructions in the newsletter.

Changed mandates can be handed in at the AGM.

Fun day at the Harbour Inn

THE Harbour Inn at Axmouth hosted a fun day for local youngsters, who were joined by children from the Community Equality Disability Action (CEDA) Centre in Exeter. There was face painting, a bouncy castle and a children's entertainer, who brought ev-everything from wigs and pogo sticks to tents and hula hoops.

Members of Lady Taverners charity were delighted to bring the CEDA youngsters along.

The charity focus its efforts on raising funds for specially adapted mini-buses, sensory and soft play room equipment and bringing youngsters to events like fun days.

Lady Taverners spokesperson Wendy Hayden said: "The fun day was so generously arranged by the Harbour Inn and all the entertainers."

Puffins make paper fish for sea festival

THE children at Puffins Pre-School in Beer played an active part in the recent Axmouth Festival of the Sea by making paper fish for a display in the church.

Axmouth Festival of the Sea was held from May 26th to June 4th and events included a fete, live music on the green and both lugger and dinghy racing on the River Axe.

Money raised from the festival will be put towards the church tower restoration fund and the redecoration of the village hall.

Police warning over lottery scam

SEATON police have warned against a scam after complaints from local people.

Neighbourhood beat manager PC Richard Jenkins said: "There have been recent incidents locally of people receiving a letter purporting to be from the Postcode Lottery stating that the recipient has won thousands of pounds and needs to ring a number to claim the prize."

"The letters are very realistic and believable.

"These letters are part of a scam and are not to be believed or answered."

Members of the public are reminded of the following things to look out for:

● Firstly, if you do not play Postcode Lottery, they will not contact you.

● If you do play and do win, the money will go straight into your account and you will receive a letter explaining that - you will not be required to claim the win.

● Most of the letters display a London address - the Postcode Lottery is based in Scotland

PC Jenkins added: "If you receive one, ignore it and destroy it."

"For further advice please contact the Neighbourhood Team on 101 system or email via the Devon and Cornwall Police website."

WINSTONS Pub Theatre in Seaton has announced their second show and they continue to promote the innovative idea.

The theatre experience takes place in the pub and 'The End of the Line' will be performed by the Restless Theatre Company on June 14th and 15th.

A spokesperson for the Friends of Winstons Pub Theatre said: "Showcasing the best in the intimacy of pub and fringe theatre, this is a genre not seen in Seaton before; it promises to be a unique experience."

"As only the second show in Winstons Pub Theatre's schedule, Restless Theatre has generously included the venue in its touring schedule despite the small space and unknown audience numbers.

"It is hoped that people will respond and make a success of the venture."

"Reviews of the launch show - Michael Garland's 'Are you Sitting Comfortably' - from those that attended were universally positive."

Fete is 'best one yet'

THIS year's Honiton Hospital Fete has been described as the best one yet, as hundreds gathered in the sunshine to enjoy everything on offer.

The fete was opened by recently retired GPs Dr Clare and David Seamark, along with town crier Dave Retter who took on the role of master of ceremonies for the day.

Along with all the traditional fete stalls, visitors were entertained by Honiton Twirlstars' youngest troupe of majorettes and Western Spirit, a line dancing team who had everyone joining in with their routines.

Honiton Hospital League of Friends chairperson, Heather Penwarden, said: "It was the best one yet.

"It was certainly a fun-packed afternoon and more than £1,600 was taken for the League of Friends for funds.

"Our hospital needs all the support we can get at the moment and this afternoon certainly showed that our community is behind us."

Hot Pennies to be sponsored by local solicitors

HONITON solicitors Beviss and Beckingsale are sponsoring this year's Hot Pennies event, which takes place next month.

The solicitors have been looking for a local event or organisation to sponsor since last year, and eventually approached town crier Dave Retter, who jumped at their offer of support for Hot Pennies.

For years the ceremony did not cost anything to run, relying on pennies that were collected by the establishments that threw them from their windows during the event.

Recent administrative expenses, including road closures, meant that the team behind the strange tradition had to look at other ways to make sure the event continued.

The ceremony is now safe for another year thanks to the help of Beviss and Beckingsale and Honiton Town Council – who provided a small grant and filed the paperwork.

For the first time in living memory, pennies will also be thrown from the Beviss and Beckingsale offices at the Manor House.

This ceremony takes place on Tuesday, July 25th and starts at 12noon.

Each year hundreds of pounds in pennies are thrown from the windows of five locations, where children and adults scramble to collect as many coins as they can.

The Hot Pennies committee would like to thank Beviss and Beckingsale and the town council for their continued support. If anyone has any spare pennies they would like to donate to the ceremony, they can contact Dave Retter on 07761 926628.

■ ARTIST Richard Webster with one of his portraits – the viewer is to guess the subjects

'Different Thinking' exhibition

RUNNING at Axminster Arts Café until July 2nd, 'Different Thinking' is an exhibition of portraits of notable creative people, most of whom have autism, Asperger's or OCD to some degree.

The artist, Richard Webster, intends his images to highlight the importance, to ourselves and our society, of all kinds of different thinking at a time when the arts are underfunded, creativity is diminishing in the school curriculum and the X-

Factor model is accepted as a norm for shaping contemporary philosophy.

The portraits will be untitled but two lists, one of the names and one of the achievements of those portrayed, will be displayed separately.

It is for the viewer to match the three elements in any way they choose.

The exhibition is open Monday to Friday 9am to 4pm, Saturday 9am to 3pm and Sunday 10am to 3pm.

Children's nursery worker wins garden spruce-up

AN Axminster children's nursery worker was delighted when his garden received a well-deserved spruce up in time for the summer thanks to outdoor cleaning specialists Jeyes.

Dennis Jacobs was the lucky winner of a special garden clean up after entering an online competition – the first of six being run by the company throughout the summer months. He was thrilled with the work undertaken at his home, which saw his hedges trimmed, lawns cut, the front patio cleaned and jet washed and the area completely cleared of cuttings in a six-hour tidy-up.

Dennis, who has worked for a children's day nursery for more than 20 years, described winning the competition as a "lovely surprise" and said it had inspired him to spend more time in his garden in the future.

"I was delighted to find out I'd won the Jeyes competition," he said.

"I'm happy to say the garden is looking fantastic. My wife is more of a keen gardener than myself so it was also a great treat for her to have the garden spruced up. We'd like to thank Jeyes and the gardener for making our garden look lovely."

Rotary sponsors hanging basket competition

THE Rotary Club of Axminster is once again sponsoring its popular hanging basket competition for local shops.

The objective is to encourage local shops in the centre of Axminster to display a floral hanging basket or baskets in front of their premises to add a splash of colour to the town and to make shopping in Axminster an even more pleasurable experience.

In the second week of July, Don Waterhouse, a former parks manager in Plymouth and former member of the advisory panel of the South West in Bloom Competition will judge the Hanging Baskets and select an overall winner to be awarded the Rotary Trophy for 2017.

Macmillian fundraiser at Weycroft Bridge

Rebel town re-enacts English Civil War

■ CHAIRMAN of Colyton Parish Council, Andrew Parr, was among those to play the Cavaliers, riding into town to bring news of successful raids

Francesca Evans

Reporter | francesca@viewnews.co.uk

HISTORY was brought to life in Colyton on Saturday, as the town hosted re-enactments of the English Civil War.

Following the success of its Monmouth Rebellion day in 2015, the Promote Colyton Group organised an English Civil War day with the help of Taunton Garrison Living History Group, which staged re-enactments complete with full costumes, weaponry demonstrations and gun powder explosions.

The scene was set as summer 1644 when the historic conflict between the Roundheads and Cavaliers had been raging for two years. In Colyton, the Pole family of Colcombe Abbey were royalist supporters, while the Erles of Stedcombe in Axmouth were of the parliamentary persuasion.

Prince Maurice based himself at Colcombe Abbey and launched attacks on Stedcombe, but Sir Walter Erle soon retaliated with a nighttime raid on Colcombe, eventually burning it to the ground. Colyton suffered continual pilaging and plundering, leaving its residents to man the barricades against the opposing forces.

Colyton residents threw themselves into the spirit of events on Sunday, with many dressing up and taking on the roles of the Roundheads and Cavaliers, while children enjoyed creative activities, including making flags and medals.

Market stalls were set up in the town centre and in the town hall, and a living history camp was based on the church green. The Tannery Yard played hosts to the royalist camp, with pizza and local ale keeping visitors refreshed, and face painting and storytelling for the children.

Further entertainment included morris dancing and a performance from folk singer Jim Causley.

Supporting young people on the path to better mental health

A monthly column by KERRY CABLE from the peer support network for young people with mental health issues, based in Axminster and Chard

THE Project is a peer support network that has been set up to support young people aged from 13 to 24 with mental health issues, and their parents and carers.

Based in Axminster and Chard, this is a free service open to young people and their parents and carers from across East Devon, South Somerset and West Dorset.

Kerry Cable is a qualified psychotherapist and mental health support worker for The Project, and will write a monthly column for this paper.

In addition to providing ongoing support for their young clients, Kerry processes referrals, creates workshops and delivers them in schools across Devon and Somerset.

She is committed to raising awareness and eliminating the stigma surrounding mental health issues.

THE subject of mental resilience has followed me around since I was a teenager. At 14, struggling with anxiety and eating problems, I started to wonder why some people seem to navigate the traumas of life with skilful agility, whereas others seem to regularly be left clinging on by their fingertips.

It wasn't until my first year of studying psychotherapy that I even discovered the term 'mental resilience' – which led me to believe that many others may not have any concept of it either.

It seems unbelievable that the education system spends hours teaching us about how our physical bodies work and how they constructed government in medieval England, without covering anything meaningful on the subject of how to protect and nurture our minds.

These skills are essential, especially for anyone who hopes to pursue challenging life goals and have successful, healthy relationships with the people around them.

Mental resilience is defined as our ability to adapt in the face of the challenges that life throws at us.

This can be a very challenging area for mental health experts as the only way of knowing how resilient you are is if you happen to actually experience some adversity.

That being said, there is something that you can do, right now, to tone up your resilience muscles and protect yourself against what life could potentially throw at you next.

'Gratitude' or 'thankfulness' has, in recent years, been revealed as one of the key factors in maintaining a healthy mind and improving interpersonal relationships.

Robert Emmons PhD has conducted a number of studies on how keeping a gratitude journal can have a huge impact on mental and even physical health.

In 2003, Emmons ran a study that revealed keeping a weekly gratitude journal made a huge difference to how positively the subjects viewed their lives as a whole and how they felt about the upcoming week, compared with others who only recorded neutral or stressful details.

Incredibly, they also reported far less physical symptoms – showing that gratitude can actually improve how your body feels too!

Also, a group of young people involved in a daily gratitude study reported feeling more focused, alert and determined from day-to-day, as well as reporting more incidents where they helped another person or provided them with emotional support.

By being grateful for what we have, whether that is the love of a wonderful friend or just the ability to get out of bed in the morning, we put ourselves into a positive state of mind, creating the best conditions for wanting to be helpful and generous towards others.

A number of studies have shown that supporting others can be as infectious as yawning.

People that saw others being helpful to strangers were far more likely to show kindness to the people they came across later in the day.

So, the next time you help someone pick up the shopping they dropped or let them go in front of you in a queue, you could be setting off a chain reaction of kind behaviour that makes the world a happier place. It's a nice thought isn't it?

How about starting a gratitude journal or note jar and reading through them when you need a boost of positivity?

You could include anything from being grateful for a sunny morning to giving thanks for a kind stranger that helped you when you needed it.

It's something we do a lot in our house, so if you need any more ideas then please feel free to get in touch with me at hello@feedingmindandbody.com

Are there any subjects that you would like me to write about? Do you have any comments or feedback on the subjects covered so far? Please feel free to get in touch.

Shute pupils get outdoors

ALL 93 pupils at Shute Primary School abandoned their classrooms to learn outdoors on national Empty Classroom Day on May 19th.

A team from the Legacy To Landscape Community Heritage Project was brought in to lead the day, which included exploring Shute Woods and a water life investigation of the River Umborne, which runs through the project area and was part of the historic 18th century Shute Estate.

Hedgehog Class teacher Mrs Bromley said: "It was a fantastic learning experience for the students; hands-on, fun, educational and a great opportunity to have access to resources that the school do not normally have."

Legacy project co-ordinator Ruth Worsley said: "These budding young scientists have made a valuable contribution to the project by carrying out vital wildlife recording, which will add to the growing database of records that the project is producing."

Her colleague Pete Youngman added: "We are also keen to work with other schools and young people's groups and introduce them to the diverse wildlife habitats in the Legacy project area."

Legacy to Landscape is a three-year project involving the community and celebrates a hidden area based on a 1780s map of Shute Estate.

Guildhall takes on World War II theme

VOLUNTEERS were recognised and celebrated for the contribution they bring to their communities at Axminster Festival of Volunteers.

Hosted by Action East Devon and jointly funded by the Big Lottery 'Celebrate' Fund and Heritage Lottery Fund, the event brought the community together to acknowledge and celebrate the valuable contribution that volunteers bring to organisations delivering services within Axminster to hundreds of people.

The event linked with a local Action East Devon-run volunteer project, 'Axminster Remembers', which has involved Axe Valley School, residents and local care homes in recording memories of the Second World War in the town and local area.

Members of the South West Airfields Heritage Trust (SWAHT) displayed a range of memorabilia from WWII, as well as a wartime American Jeep.

The volunteer fair allowed the public to explore a range of local services through a variety of stalls, exhibitions and presentations.

Sandra Chapman, who organised the event in partnership with Axminster Guildhall, said: "Despite being a sunny day during half term, we were pleased that 65 people visited the volunteer fair."

"The face painting for the children proved popular as did photographs with the WWII Jeep on loan from Upottery Heritage Centre (one of the sites where SWAHT is based), which adorned the forecourt at Axminster Guildhall."

"I know that several new volunteers were signed up, ensuring much needed local services can continue to be delivered."

The WWII-themed tea dance in the afternoon, with live 1940s music from Ricky Hunter, was an opportunity to say thank you to those individuals who have volunteered their time.

Katherine Weston, project manager for Axminster Remembers, said: "This event was a wonderful opportunity for volunteers and local residents to socialise and to share WWII reminiscences."

"We even had a wartime resident of the town visit from London."

"The WWII-themed Guildhall looked stunning and visitors were reminded of its use by American soldiers and locals, as a dance hall and cinema during the 1940s."

Dye house project down to EU grant

■ THE Axminster Heritage revival of the Dye House is excellent news for the town and is testament to those who worked hard to bring it about.

I would like to praise the role of the EU in providing the funding for such a small project in a rural area.

I understand that the EU provided nearly half the funding for this venture and that presumably it would never have come to fruition without it.

It is a further example of how the generation, who voted in the majority to leave the EU, have benefitted from all its advantages for most of their lifetimes, and now have succeeded in denying their children and grandchildren.

The agenda for the entire Brexit campaign has been the amount of money we pay into the EU, with scant regard to the enormous many and varied advantages it repays to us.

Bravo to those who have managed to get this payment from the citizens of other countries in Europe, and who now refuse to help others.

Any person who voted to leave the EU and has agreed to accept its grants should be ashamed of themselves.

Or are they going to offer to repay the grant post Brexit?

SEAN LITTLE,
Axminster

■ I ATTENDED the Honiton mayor making as consort to the outgoing mayor.

Over the last two years Caroline has worked tirelessly representing Honiton at civic functions and all sorts of other local events.

My supporting role has allowed me to meet hundreds of volunteers who make all those events run smoothly.

Too many to mention behind the scenes – the carnival, pantomime, Guide Dogs, Hospicecare, Beavers, Friends of Honiton Hospital, care homes, art clubs, Armistice parades, Villages In Action, Dementia Friends, station friends, faith groups, churches and many more.

I offer my praise and thanks to these unsung heroes – you make our community.

STEPHEN KOLEK,

Send your letters to Francesca Evans at Pulman's View From Newspapers, Unit 3, St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3DB or email them to francesca@viewnews.co.uk

Europhiles can still be patriotic

■ I FEEL I must respond to criticism from T. Brown (via email) May 16th, to my letter published on May 2nd.

Thank you for reading my letter, however, I actually suspect this of being some form of political propaganda.

Ever since the referendum last June this local paper has published letters on both sides of the debate, I have based all my pieces on my dismay that people of Seaton voted by majority to leave the EU.

Quite simply with every leave promise evaporating we have no logical reason that leaving the EU could benefit Seaton in any way.

I am heartened that yours is the first angry Brexiteer reply this year, and there have only been two regular negative responders whose names I recognise?

I too send my posts via email, but I can't envisage any individual in Seaton or Colyton named T. Brown that has been so enthused by the leave vote and has the means at hand to set up a manufacturing facility in the UK employing 600 staff, it doesn't sound very likely in the whole of Devon let alone Seaton and Colyton.

Yes, my letter was negative and depressing but most recognise this is the current reality where Tory austerity has damaged all our local services losing hospital beds and forcing many to the food bank which itself is struggling to supply an ever growing demand.

How can the government expect people so abused by the state, to vote for further austerity and the prospect not of a better future but minimising the damage the leave vote has on everyone's future for generations to come.

Of course, there's the old chestnut that remain voters are europhile so are unpatriotic; I love my country.

By your standards, the man that murdered MP Jo Cox or UKIP thugs or Union Jack short wearing football hooligans and lager louts are more patriotic than someone that projects a good impression of Britain abroad.

I have around 30,000 readers of my Trip Advisor blogs around the world, the majority of which are to encourage tourism and visitors to our Jurassic coast attractions, cafes, restaurants and, of course, our unique scenery which is as good as the best coasts in Europe.

Pub theatre friends say 'thank you'

■ FWPT (Friends of Winstons Pub Theatre) would like to say a huge thank you to all those who contributed to our fundraising cake and bric-a-brac sale at the pub last Saturday.

All the volunteers deserve a huge pat on the back and all those who gave to the tombola and the raffle.

We'd like everyone to know that we raised the great sum of £250 which will go towards building stairs for the stage and other equipment needed.

Our next show (Restless Theatre's 'End of the Line') is on June 14th and 15th and we would like to attract more theatre companies to visit Seaton, so it is great to have the support of the community in our efforts to provide better facilities.

Recycling has become a 'farce'

■ THIS recycling is getting to be a farce now with bags; it's bad enough in the high winds already.

We are having to chase green bins and their lids but now also bags – if these bags take off they will be a hazard to aircraft.

Why don't we do what other countries do with a set of small skips with lids on each street and only change them when they're full?

This would solve the problem of no more flying bags and bins cluttering up the pavements?

AXE VALE FESTIVAL – A DATE WORTH KEEPING

Welcome to the 23rd Axe Vale Festival - and Thank You for supporting our work for local good causes.

LAST year I opened the Show Guide with the words "Over the years the Show has changed ..." but little did I realise how many more changes this year would bring.

The first and most obvious one you will have noticed is the work we have done to improve access to and from the Car Parks, which in turn has seen the layout of Entrance Gates up-dated and, in response to the feedback we gather from our Exhibitors and Visitors, we have taken a new look at the layout of the Showground and made some alterations to give the Show a fresh look and feel.

Furthering our efforts to keep moving with the times, we have recruited some new members to our Committee who will invigorate the Show with their new ideas, many more of which will be incorporated next year - make a note of the date: 23rd and 24th June 2018.

Whilst we have enjoyed welcoming our new colleagues, we are sad that for a number of different reasons we have lost Committee, Life and Honorary Members: a number of old friends, loyal and hard-working colleagues who have given so much of their time, energy, wisdom and enthusiasm to our charitable work over the years. Our thanks, and those of the many who have benefited from their efforts, are due to them in no small measure.

Our purpose in being is to provide a Show for everyone to enjoy - which we very much hope you will - and a means of raising money which we distribute through charitable grants for the benefit of organisations and individuals locally. We welcome applications which should be addressed to The Axe Vale Festival Ltd. Thomas Whitty House, Silver Street, Axminster EX13 5AH

And finally..... please remember that everyone you see helping on the Showground today is a volunteer. If you think you would like to help us next year please send us your details - we'd love to hear from you.

Thank you all for your support.

INCORPORATING AXE VALE FESTIVAL AND AXMINSTER ART SOCIETY

NATIONAL CARE HOME

CARING COMMUNITIES 16TH JUNE 2017

CARE HOMES ARE TAKING CENTRE STAGE AND YOU'RE ALL INVITED

COME AND JOIN US ON 16TH JUNE

ABOUT THE OPEN DAY

CARE Home Open Day is a UK wide initiative inviting care homes to open their doors to their local communities.

Thousands of care homes across the UK take part each year, welcoming the public and arranging events and activities that help to create lasting links between care home residents and their local communities.

This is all about showing people what excellent care homes are really about and how they can be at the centre of local communities, developing relationships across the generations.

We're making some positive noise - and we want you to be part of it!

This year we are once again partnering with The Big Lunch, which is the UK's annual get together for neighbours. Every year in June since the idea began in 2009, millions of people stop what they're doing and get together with neighbours in a nationwide act of community and friendship. In partnering with National Care Home Open Day in 2017, The Big Lunch is aiming to support care homes all over the country to open their doors and invite the community in.

Organising a Big Lunch shouldn't be overly complicated, or require a lot of resources or money: it can be as big or as small as you like. By making use of what you already have and doing a little research to see what others can share, you'd be surprised at what you can all bring to the table!

5TH YEAR RUNNING!

AS CARE Home Open Day's emphasis is on the importance of connecting with local communities, developing lasting relationships and encouraging intergenerational rapport, the theme for this year will be "Friendship" and as part of this year's event, we will be celebrating Care Home Open Day in conjunction with The Big Lunch.

The Big Lunch, part of the Eden Project in Cornwall and an annual event, aims to get as many people as possible to share lunch together in an act of friendship that will encourage communities to connect and help to prevent isolation amongst those who may be living alone. It's the perfect recipe for having fun with your neighbours, feeding community spirit and helping to build stronger neighbourhood connections - so fits in nicely with the Care Home Open Day ethos!

Care homes are encouraged to celebrate friendships that have developed between residents, families, friends and staff, as well as with their neighbours, to reinforce how they should be an integral part of their local community.

Good care homes do great things all year round and this one day is to highlight what you do within your local communities.

So, get your thinking caps on, get your residents, their families, staff and your friends in the local community involved in deciding what you would like to do for the day, and get planning!

PHOTOGRAPHS FROM 2015

WHAT DO WE WANT TO ACHIEVE?

CARE Home Open Day is about connecting people! We want to enrich the lives of the UK's care home residents by reminding people that care homes in every community are filled with unique, intelligent and charming characters, and run by special people that really do care.

But don't just take our word for it - we hope you will join us on 16th June 2017 - just click here to find a home near you and see what they're planning for the big day! If you are a care home who wants to join in, then just click on the registration tab at the top of the home page and set up an account.

In the mean time, we need everyone to get involved and help us by spreading the word - just like us on Facebook or share with your friends on Twitter, and together we'll make a difference that lasts!

OAK LODGE CARE HOME

DIGNITY IS A BASIC HUMAN RIGHT, NOT AN OPTIONAL EXTRA

PHYSICAL comfort is just one measure of quality of lifestyle. Your needs, your preferences, and your well-being are what come first at Oak Lodge. The house is registered to provide personal and nursing care for older people, with a very successful, separate area dedicated for the provision of specialist dementia care. Twenty-four hour cover is provided by a qualified, experienced and committed care team. They have recently been individually recognised as a company and a home, for their high standards and attention to detail that differentiates Oak Lodge from other homes. Oak Lodge isn't just a place to stay, but a place to call home.

At Oak Lodge we believe that another important aspect of maintaining our high standard of accommodation is redecoration when it is needed. Many of our rooms have been refreshed in recent months, including our new quiet room. This is a beautifully decorated lounge area with views of the garden where residents may spend time with visiting loved one, or simply relax.

Staff at Oak Lodge are also supporting the national initiative of Dignity Champions. A Dignity Champion is someone who believes passionately that being treated with dignity is a basic human right, not an optional extra. They believe that care services must be compassionate, person centred, as well as efficient, and are willing to try to do something to achieve this.

Please don't hesitate to call for advice, or for an information pack, with no commitment necessary. Our telephone number is 01460 67258.

HAZELWELL LODGE

HAZELWELL LODGE is an award-winning 35 bed specialist residential care home situated in the parish town of Ilminster in South West Somerset. Miss Edna Maxwin took over the running of the home in 1987, for the elderly & individual's with dementia. Her aim was to change people's perception of care homes & how people view their autumn years. Through her dedication & hard work we progressed on to specializing in the care of individuals living with dementia & associated mental health care needs. The operation of the home is designed to enable our residents to resume a much more desirable way of living that achieves their individual needs on a personal level through person centered care. We have created a homely environment which is safe & adaptable to the unique needs of each individual, this enables our residents to enjoy as much independence, mental & physical stimulation as possible. Miss Maxwin has been joined by her son Chris Ochoa in the ownership of the home. Claire Kingdon, who has over 20 years' experience in dementia care is the registered manager. With support & interaction from local authorities, NHS & Health-care professionals, it is clear to see that perceptions HAVE changed. Hazelwell Lodge holds an important & respected position in our local community.

“Insurer “Royal London” estimates that as many as 800,000 pensioners are paying too much tax.”

...worried about whether you should be completing tax returns?

...not sure if you are underpaying/overpaying tax?

...not quite sure what accounts you have or, how much is in them/due to you?

...maybe you would just like someone to “sort it all out” and prepare a comprehensive consolidated list of Investment / Bank / Share / ISA Accounts and, balances so that all the important information is on one or, two pieces of paper which can then be reviewed and updated each tax year end and then reviewed for tax return repayment claims.

When we have undertaken this work the feed-back from Clients has been very positive (including substantial tax repayments in some cases).

If you consider this might be of interest to you please contact our Zoe Parsons (Administrator) to arrange a free appointment at either your home or our Office.

FATHER'S DAY

TREAT YOUR DAD TO SOMETHING SPECIAL THIS YEAR

5 Facts about Father's Day

1) Father's Day was first thought up by American Sonora Smart Dodd who wanted to honour her father, a war veteran and single parent, who raised his six children. The first recognised Father's Day was celebrated on June 19th, 1910.

2) Unlike Mother's Day, Father's Day was originally met with laughter. It was the target of much satire, parody and derision with a local newspaper complaining that it would lead to mindless promotions such as 'National Clean Your Desk Day'.

3) The most popular Father's Day present – perhaps unsurprisingly – is a tie.

4) Father's Day is the fifth-largest card-sending holiday, according to the greetings card makers Hallmark. Approximately seven million Father's Day cards are sent each year across the UK, compared with 13 million Mother's Day cards.

5) In Germany, Father's Day is celebrated differently from other parts of the world. Männertag (Men's day) is celebrated by getting drunk with wagons of beer and indulging in regional food. Police and emergency services are on high alert during the day!

Open day to mark 300 years of Freemasonry

The Lodge Virtue and Honor was started through the initiative of Brother William Tucker, of Coryton Park, Kilmington in 1844. There had been a previous lodge in Axminster which had been founded in 1818 but it ceased in 1830. It had the same name as its successor but its lodge number was 709. The new lodge was originally numbered 725 but changed to 494 in 1863.

The first meeting of the reformed lodge was held in the George Hotel's Assembly Rooms on March 9th, 1844, and the George Hotel would be their home for the next 40 years. In 1884 the Lodge moved to the Law Offices off Trinity Square where it remained until 1931 when it transferred to the Plaza Cinema.

From there the Lodge moved to their present home, the Lodge Temple, in South Street. The move came about because the Plaza Cinema had changed hands during the war and there was no longer security of tenancy at the low rent that had previously enjoyed.

Fortunately, a Brother owned two cottages in South Street and he offered this site to the Lodge if it would undertake the building of the new Lodge Temple. It was a major financial risk at the time but it would prove to be a great success.

It was, however, a lengthy process. Planning permission was not applied for until 1956 and only after a £5,000 mortgage was obtained two years later and work began, the Freemasonry is one of the world's oldest and largest non-religious, non-political, fraternal and charitable organisations. Its roots lie in the traditions and ceremonies of the medieval stonemasons who built our cathedrals and castles.

The movement is celebrating the Tercentenary of The Grand Lodge of England with the Lodge of Virtue & Honor Axminster holding an Open Day on Saturday, June 24th (10 am to 3pm).

To mark the occasion we reproduce here an article for Pulman's Weekly News in June 2002, written by the late Gerald Gosling and Les Berry, on the history of the Axminster Lodge.

foundation stone being laid by Bro. H. S. Vince, the owner of the site, on September 6th 1960, the dedication ceremony being held 10 months later.

By that time the Worshipful Master was the late Frank Rowe (father of the now retiring secretary Jim Rowe).

The building work was carried out by local builders Messrs R. Moulding & Son with Mr. F. S. "Freddie" Kett as architect.

The founder of Lodge Virtue and Honor, William Tucker, was installed as Worshipful Master by Worshipful Brother Mosse of the Lodge of Unanimity and sincerity (Taunton) on March 9th, 1844. At a later meeting, among those who were initiated as brothers were Mr James Reece (an ironmonger in the town), Mr John Cox (master at Oak House School), Mr John Payne (a tailor) and Mr James Gillman (a letter carrier).

William Tucker died at the early age of 40 in 1855 and was a Freemason for only 13 years. But, during that period, he formed more work for the movement than most members managed in a long lifetime. He was a man of great energy and capabilities.

One of the original officers, Mr John Sprague, the Lodge Tyler or outer guard, was admirably suited to the post having fought with the Duke of Wellington at Waterloo in 1815. On leaving the army he was appointed the post of Turnpike gatekeeper at the foot of Gammon's Hill where he lived in the toll house.

It was there that he came to know William Tucker and his yarns about his adventures during the Peninsular War and at Waterloo intrigued Kilmington's squire so much that he invited to join the newly formed lodge as Outer Guard, a post he held until 1874 when he succeeded by his son-in-law Bro. John Wakely who was succeeded in turn in 1898 by his son-in-law, Bro J. T. Wade who held the office until his death in 1937 – a 93-year record of service in the same office from one family.

The Lodge's centenary in 1944 was held at their head-quarters on the first floor of the Plaza Cinema when many members would have been absent on active duty during World War Two. Despite that and the stringencies of wartime rationing, brothers sat down to an enjoyable tea after a church service. Less than two hours after tea they sat down to supper.

Since then the Virtue and Honor Lodge

The founder of the Lodge of Virtue & Honor in Axminster in 1844 – William Tucker has continued to quietly serve the community in many ways.

◆ IN 2002 we reported that throughout the years, the Freemasonry Movement has been labelled as a secretive society. The "Freemasonry in the Community Week" was being held to demonstrate to the public that it is a law abiding and charitable institution which they want to share with people in the communities they serve.

That's Entertainment

THE AMIABLE David Ivory, a versatile organist and entertainer from Suffolk, once again gave a superb performance on Saturday, June 10th. David is a great favourite with the Beer audience and he commented "The Beer Wurlitzer gets better and better, a real treat to play, it has a mellow sound that you don't hear on modern organs - I just love coming to Beer".

He commenced his show with the tune 'That's Entertainment' which set the scene for the afternoon - his first-half programme included well-known music from the twenties and thirties. For the second half David's theme was 'Play Gypsy', for which he delighted the audience by appearing in costume. After training as a pianist and then a classical and church organist, David has been touring the UK for the last forty years performing in his individual, vintage, English style.

The next show will be on Saturday, July 8th, with Trevor Bolshaw, internationally acclaimed concert and recording organist and President of the Friends of the

The garden that inspired a book... and an exhibition

THE LATEST exhibition at Ilminster Arts Centre is an artist's response to the garden created by Katherine Swift at Morville Dower House, Shropshire. Having been captivated by Katherine's book The Morville Hours and the garden itself, the task of expressing the complexity of its historical and horticultural ideas in visual terms became an ongoing preoccupation for artist Maureen Cooper.

Maureen first visited Morville in 2012, having read Katherine Swift's multilayered account of the creation of the garden, the history of the area and her own personal story. She arrived at 2 and left at 6, "I was hooked!" she confesses, "There was something about Katherine's way of looking at the world that chimed with my own - a sense of people and places from the past and what they mean in our own lives".

Since that first visit Maureen has returned monthly between April and September every year. Her photographs and Polaroids of the garden became starting points for digital images, paintings and mixed media work that reflect the garden's structure and its wildness, as well as its seasonal changes.

Maureen says of her approach: "I take photographs, but these isolated images hold one, framed moment and can only relate to each other in terms of overlap or information provided by the viewer. This point of dislocation and fractured memory, where each image makes sense in isolation but resonates with others to make an internal landscape is where I begin".

The exhibition runs from Monday, June 19th until Saturday, July 8th. Open 9.30am-4.30pm Monday to Friday, and 9.30am-2.30pm Saturdays. Admission is free.

Blood Brothers

MRS JOHNSTON is a working class single mother with seven children and two more on the way. She cleans for the middle class Mrs Lyons with whom she contrasts strongly, and not just because Mrs Lyons cannot have children.

Mrs Lyons suggests that one twin be given to her so that the child can grow up having everything. The story then proceeds focussing on the lives of twins who are inextricably linked by birth yet separated by background and upbringing. With both mothers determined that the boys do not meet or associate it is fate that intervenes and the two boys create a friendship bond and ironically become 'blood brothers'. Although this friendship deepens over the years their contrasting environments force them apart and tragedy occurs because their upbringings prevents a proper understanding of each other.

Come and see this gripping tale performed by the talented ADC Youth, at Axminster Guildhall from June 22nd to 25th.

Tickets are available at Archway Bookshop now on online at www.ticketsource.co.uk/axminster-drama-club

Modern jazz giant comes to Ilminster

RENOWNED saxophonist Jean Toussaint teams up with the Craig Milverton trio to perform an evening of top notch 'hard bop' modern jazz on Friday, June 23rd.

A colossus of modern jazz, Jean Toussaint played through the 1980s with Art Blakey's Jazz Messengers, probably the best known, longest lasting, and highest profile, hard bop group there has ever been. Since then, he hasn't looked back, nor has he spent a career trying to repeat the past. The experiences he gained in that world-class hothouse have enabled him to push forward and embrace challenging and often high profile musical collaborations in many different jazz styles. Today he is based in London as a band leader/composer, and educator.

Craig Milverton has played at Ilminster many times, and his trio has become almost a resident group, accompanying most of the leading visiting players. He has played extensively in the UK and at venues and festivals around the world, in doing so the list of musicians he has played with includes the best known names in the world of jazz. Craig won the UK Jazz Award for piano in 2010. Few British pianists have Craig's thorough knowledge and grasp of jazz styles. His love of the music shines through and he is a natural at whatever he plays.

Jean Toussaint with the Craig Milverton Trio perform at Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting House on Friday, June 23rd at 8pm. Tickets are £16 (pre-show supper available for £14 at 7pm, must be pre-booked). For more details and to book call 01460 54973 or visit www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

with The Beehive's Wendy Van Der Plank

THE fabulous Beehive volunteers are going to be working their socks off this week with all of these wondrous shows, quite apart from the Acoustic Café on Wednesday night at 8pm in the bar, free for all to come along and join or listen to lovely local talent. There is also the HonitonDFAS lecture 'Les Parisiennes' – How Women Lived, Loved and Died in Paris from 1939 to 1949 at 2pm on Tuesday, June 13th. www.honiton-dfas.org.uk.

With the fabulous reviews and sell out performances across the West Country everyone would be bonkers to miss the wonderful production of Dylan Thomas' 'Under Milk Wood' by the Bristol Old Vic theatre school graduates at the Beehive this Thursday, June 15th at 7.30pm.

Thomas's beautiful, bawdy affectionate tale takes a peek at the loves, lives and feuds of the inhabitants of Llareggub, a small Welsh fishing village.

On Friday, June 16th we have festival favourite and brilliant social commentator Gaz Brookfield with a huge range of very entertaining songs, from 'I can't drink cider anymore', a reaction to his diabetes diagnosis, to 'The Bigger Man' a number about bullying and a beautiful folk song - 'The Tale of Gunner Haines'. Tickets are only £6 (in advance), and Gaz is well worth coming to see, along with the fab Ben Wain on fiddle. This will be a standing gig with some seating too. 8pm and suitable for ages 14+ due to some effing and jeffing!

'The Great Train Robbery' a really funny, fabulous, inventive show adds a great twist to this story about the 1963 Heist on Saturday, June 17th at 7pm. This is local, professional theatre at its best, by the Scratchworks theatre Co. from Exeter. The show comes hotfoot from Brighton Festival where all four shows sold out, so book your ticket quick!

Another successful vehicle rally at Peco

Once again, the weather held much to the delight of almost 300 classic and vintage vehicle owners at Pecorama on Sunday 28th May. Extra space was secured for this year's rally to cope with the number of attendees and the hundreds of visitors coming to admire the array of historic cars, vans, trucks and motorcycles. There were significant turn outs again from the Triumph Sports Six Club, Rover P4 Drivers Guild and Midget & Sprite Club, along with a huge variety of independents showing everything from classic fire engines to more exotic Aston Martins.

Visitors took advantage of the BBQ on offer, serving local Burgers and Hotdogs from Colyton Butchers as well as rides on the Beer Heights Light Railway, another brilliant show by Ozzy D and for the second year running, Vicky Morgan's exhibition of local landscape artwork. The next major event is on Saturday, July 1st, with an evening performance of Shakespeare's

The Tempest – by TheatreHub and the Inn Theatre Company. Tickets are limited for the hugely popular night, which was a sell-out last year. Further information is available online at www.pecorama.co.uk

Sax Maestro Jade Gall in Lyme Regis

JADE GALL is a classically trained saxophonist who has studied both at Dartington and the Royal Welsh College of Music. She has also rapidly become the go-to choice for jazz, swing, soul and ska bands throughout Devon, including 'The Simmertones' who had many plays on BBC Radio 2 with their single 'Perhaps' which features Doris Day, and 'Michael Campani and the Solar System' with whom she played at Glastonbury Festival. She will be focusing on the jazz in the intimate surroundings of the Marine Theatre Bar on Sunday 18 June, accompanied by Philip Clouts at the piano.

Jade started her love for music off at a young age as a flautist before venturing on to the tenor saxophone at age 13. She went on to study at Dartington College of Arts as an undergraduate where she gained a BA(hons) in Music (professional practice). During her time at Dartington, she continued her jazz studies privately with jazz saxophonist Martin Dale, who was the first person to introduce her to the wonderful world of jazz improvisation. She later went on to study the saxophone at the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama where she studied under saxophonists Lara James and Gerard McChrystal. She graduated as a Master of Arts in music performance in 2013.

Jade is a member of acclaimed ska band The Simmertones, who regularly perform across the country to sell out crowds, including many prestigious events such as the London International Ska Festival and Boomtown Fair. You can hear Jade playing flute on their latest single 'Run For Your Life'.

Although Jade can be seen performing in many horn sections across the country, she is still strongly involved with her classical roots. She has been a regular performing at the Dartmouth Music Festival and Calstock Arts, as well as performing during part of the Welsh Proms where she premiered Marianna Filippi's 'Meandering Impressions: A Love Poem' for tenor saxophone and piano.

Jade regularly performs on the South West scene and beyond, performing as a guest artist or with her sold-out quintet. She is also privileged to perform across the UK with London-based touring companies the

■ Jade Gall

'Magic of Motown Show' and the 'Soul Legends Show'. She has also performed with the Swing Machine Jazz Orchestra with artists such as singer Clare Teal, pianist Jason Rebello and composer Duncan Lamont.

Jade Gall plays Jazz in the Bar at the Marine Theatre on Sunday, June 18th at 8pm. Tickets are £12/£10 available by calling 01297 442138 or online at www.marinetheatre.com

Summer finance and loyalty offers for all-new Suzuki Swift

THE ALL-NEW Swift went on sale last week and Suzuki is pleased to announce the availability of its attractive PCP finance offers. Personal Contract Purchase is an ideal way for customers to take delivery of a new Suzuki with a very low deposit and low monthly payments too. Suzuki Financial Services is also offering a £500 deposit allowance with 2.9 per cent APR finance on SZ-T and SZ5 two wheel drive models until the end of June.

Taking an SZ-T with 1.0 Boosterjet engine as an example with the £500 deposit allowance on offer, no further deposit is required and payments are then spread over 48 months at £185 per month with an APR of just 2.9 per cent. Monthly payments can be lowered to £159 per month for the SZ-T if a small deposit of £1,163 is made. As with any PCP agreement, an optional final payment is required to keep the car which for this model is £4,645.

Moving to the top of the range SZ5 1.0-litre Boosterjet 2WD with the £500 deposit allowance, just £1,305 is all that is needed as a customer deposit followed by 48 monthly payments of £179 and an APR of 2.9 per cent. The optional final payment for this model is £5,153.

For even greater fuel efficiency, the SZ5 2WD with manual transmission is equipped as standard with SHVS (Smart Hybrid Vehicle by Suzuki) as standard. In situations that require higher fuel use, such as when starting from a standstill or accelerating, SHVS helps suppress fuel consumption by providing electric motor assist using electricity generated through regenerative braking. Because the system uses a belt drive rather than a conventional starter motor to restart the engine after an engine stop it allows for a quiet and smooth start.

The six speed automatic transmission equipped SZ5 is also included in the low rate and deposit allowance offers with a customer deposit of £1,543 required followed by 48 monthly payments of £199.

Suzuki has introduced a new and comprehensive Accessories programme to enable customers to fully personalise their new Swift. As an introductory offer Suzuki will contribute £500 towards these to all existing Suzuki car owners. The only stipulation is that customers must have had a Suzuki car in the same household for at least 90 days and the accessories are ordered at point of purchase.

Specification Highlights

Standard equipment for all Swift models in the range is comprehensive and the SZ3 model with 1.2-litre Dualjet engine and manual transmission includes six airbags, air conditioning, leather steering wheel, DAB radio with Bluetooth and four speakers, rear privacy glass, LED daytime running lights, 15-inch wheels, body coloured door mirrors and front electric windows.

Mitsubishi Outlander Keiko Special Edition adds extra connectivity, comfort and value

MITSUBISHI Motors in the UK has announced the Mitsubishi Outlander Keiko – a special edition version of its all-wheel drive SUV that significantly enhances convenience, refinement and value.

Available to order now and priced from £27,999, the new special edition is based on the already generously equipped Mitsubishi Outlander 3.

For only £550 more than the Mitsubishi Outlander 3, the Keiko adds leather seats and the feature-laden Mitsubishi Global Navigation (MGN) unit.

The MGN unit supports Apple CarPlay, the smarter, safer way to use your iPhone in the car*1, and also Android AutoTM, which provides voice-controlled operation of Google MapsTM, Google PlayTM music and other apps*2. Key features also include a wide 6.5-inch touchscreen LCD display, DAB radio, TomTom satellite navigation and CD/DVD player.

Other highlights of the Keiko's impressive standard specification include dual-zone air conditioning, privacy glass, keyless operation with a stop/start button, seven seats with split/folding third row, 18-inch alloy wheels, rear parking sensors, seven airbags, electronic parking brake (auto only) and Brake Auto Hold (auto only).

Power is provided by a technologically advanced, 2.2-litre diesel engine, which is available with automatic and six-speed manual transmissions. The on-demand 4WD system improves stability, traction, fuel economy and emissions. Manual versions return 53.3

mpg on the combined fuel economy cycle with CO2 emissions of 139g/km, while automatic versions are capable of 48.7 mpg and produce 154g/km.

As with all Mitsubishi Outlander diesel variants, the Keiko is backed by a five-year, 62,500-mile warranty. For an additional £700, customers can purchase the Mitsubishi Service Plan, which covers scheduled maintenance for the first three years.

The all-new Mazda CX-5 - discover more

BUILDING on the extraordinary success of the outgoing CX-5, a car that introduced Mazda's SKYACTIV technology and KODO: Soul of Motion design philosophy, the all-new Mazda CX-5 has been designed to bring a new dimension of driving pleasure to SUV customers.

With its award-winning combination of style, driving dynamics and efficiency the original Mazda CX-5 changed perceptions in the compact SUV segment. Winning acclaim from customers and media alike, global sales of over 1.5 million mean it now accounts for roughly 25 per cent of Mazda's global sales volume with more than 32,000 current-generation CX-5s having been sold in the UK since 2012.

Now with enhancements across the board, an all-new interior and a fully-revised body structure the all-new Mazda CX-5 raises the bar even higher, delivering new levels of style, refinement and driving pleasure. Designed under the concept of 'Refined Toughness' the second-generation CX-5 features a powerful evolution of Mazda's front-end design, with sleeker sides and a lower roofline underscore its solid stance and elegant proportions. Inside, Mazda's human-centric development ethos delivers an interior that merges meticulous cockpit ergonomics with a sophisticated, high-quality and spacious cabin environment.

A product of Mazda's 'Jinba-Ittai' car-and-driver as one philosophy, the all-new Mazda CX-5 delivers new levels of driver engagement and comfort. With particular attention paid to reducing noise and vibration within the cabin, the all-new CX-5 provides unmistakably premium levels of comfort and refinement, while at the same time improving on the class-leading handling precision and driver involvement of the outgoing car. With 15 per cent stiffer torsional body rigidity than the outgoing model, refinements to the steering, suspension and brakes, plus the introduction of G-Vectoring Control (GVC) the all-new Mazda CX-5 is more comfortable, refined and responsive than ever.

Available in two highly-specified trim levels, the ten model UK range starts at just £23,695. Both Mazda's SKYACTIV-MT six-speed manual and SKYACTIV-Drive six-speed automatic transmissions feature in the range, as does the latest generation of Mazda's intelligent i-ACTIV all-wheel drive (AWD) system.

All models feature a generous standard equipment tally that includes LED headlights, auto power-folding door mirrors, dual-zone climate control, DAB radio and a 7" colour touchscreen display with Mazda's integrated navigation. Sport Nav cars add to this with a host of premium highlights including a reversing camera, 8-way power adjustable driver's seat and Smart keyless entry, plus heated front seats and steering wheel. Offered in a Mazda for the first time, Sport Nav models also feature a power lift tailgate, plus a new head-up display (HUD) that projects directly onto the windscreen and features Traffic Sign Recognition.

Other highlights include two new optional paint colours: Soul Red Crystal Metallic and Machine Grey Metallic. Both colours use Mazda's unique three-layer TAKUMINURI painting technology, and compared to previous CX-5's Soul Red Metallic paint, Soul Red Crystal increases brightness by approximately 20 per cent and depth by 50 per cent.

A week to forget in leagues for Feniton BC

SEATON with Alan Nicholas
SEATON beat visiting AXMINSTER 82-62 in a four-rink friendly on the Jubilee Gardens green. Top rink for Seaton was Carol Armitage, Ted Talbot, Graham Thomas & Marian Vessey.

A three triples friendly was played the following day at home against CHARMOUTH. Again the result went Seaton's way 2-1. Top triple; Sam Fox, Peter Barradell & Lin Alison.

On Tuesday, June 6th a successful coffee morning was held in the clubhouse, but the planned coaching session of novice members had to be cancelled due to the inclement weather.

However, in the afternoon the Ladies Over 50s Triples League Blue team took on BUDLEIGH at home. Seaton team claimed the match by two triples to nil - top triple; Barbara Sluman, Lilian Hurley-Smith & Di Morley.

The following day the Men's Over 60 Triples League A team were beaten by EXONIA A who won both triples. Meanwhile, the C team won away at OTTERTY C, winning both triples. The top triple; Reg Pluck, Peter Grigg & Dennis Ridd (35-9).

FENITON with Roger Smith

IT has been a very disappointing week for the men's teams. In the over 60s triples league the A team lost 38-27 to SIDMOUTH A. The winning rink was M Chipperfield, J Livings & A Smith 17-16. The B team also lost 40-30 to EXONIA C. The winning rink was C Maynard, L Ley & R Clarke 19-18.

In the County Trophy competition, they lost a close match 84-75 against OTTERTY ST MARY, the winning rinks were P Goodwin, R Lovering, A Kury & K Sanders, A Smith & R Clarke 19-18. They also lost their Top Club match against SIDMOUTH by 4-1 in rinks. The only winning rink was R Cooke, A Smith & I Veitch 17-11.

The Ladies lost their Grace Matthews match against MADEIRA losing on all rinks.

The only highlight of the week was the Ladies 49-22 success against MADEIRA in the over 50s league. The winning rinks were A Coyne, D Bowden & J Smith and G Blackmore, D Phillips & R Veitch 22-12.

AXMINSTER

with David Harris

AX men continued their unbeaten start in the Devon Over 60s League with excellent home wins over BRADNINCH B and CULM VALE.

The former were beaten 48-25 with wins on both rinks - George Mabon, Alfie Day & Doug Lookan (25-8) and John Hill, David Harris & Bob Sherborne (23-17) before overcoming Culm Vale (45-28) again with wins on both rinks - Howard Keep, Ken Webster, and Bob Sherborne (23-12) and John Packham, George Mabon & Alfie Day (22-16).

However, the men came unstuck against MADEIRA in both the Top Club and the Foxlands County KO Competitions with only Bob Sherborne managing a win in the latter, 21-19 in the four-wood singles.

In the mixed friendlies Axminster lost 82-62 at SEATON with Joan Quick, Ann Burn, Alan Foster & Ken Quick the only winners (21-8) before beating DUNKESWELL 78-42 at home with wins for Philippa White, David Harris & Budgie Halldowes (28-7), Ann Burn, Ken Quick & Alfie Day (20-6) and Morrison Brown, Ann Clayton & Margaret Crompton (19-6).

HONITON with Julie Grant

HONITON Ladies progressed into the next round of the county Interclub competition by beating ORESTON 54-29.

Played at Kings in the drizzle, Honiton won on both rinks - the best result being Carole Pidgeon, Di Hawkins, Janet Sherwood & Carole Binmore 30-12. Honiton will play Newton Abbot next on June 21st.

The Ladies also enjoyed success in the Over 50 league away against OTTERTY ST MARY. Both triples won so six points were gained; Joan Mackintosh, Rita Barwick & Shirley Hiscocks 22-5, Di Hawkins, Berry Maynard & Heather Chambers 25-8.

In the Men's over 60 league the A team lost to MADEIRA and the B team managed to win on one rink against BUDLEIGH, Ron Rogers, Tony Tooley & Trevor Pipe scoring 21-15. The Men stumbled in their County Trophy and Top Club games. On both occasions SEATON got the better of Honiton, by two shots in the Trophy match and by three events to one in Top Club.

The mixed friendly also brought woes as Honiton lost 76-72 to TAUNTON VIVARY, top rink Mike Critchley, Sam Sherwood, Ken Clarke & Dick Summers 28-13.

On Saturday afternoon 41 members held their annual Charity Day game for the Fortescue Trophy.

The winning team was Denis Hillyear, Eileen Dommett & Richard Bland. Each year the club holds a themed bowls drive and this year the theme was Dancing Through the Decades.

This gives the members a chance to shed normal bowls attire and raised £281 for the nominated charity which this year is Honiton Dementia Action Alliance.

ON Sunday, June 4th four members took part in the KILLERTON DUATHLON, a mix of run-cycle-run. There were two distances to choose from; the longer standard distance or shorter sprint. All HRC took on the shorter sprint made up of a 5k run, 20k bike ride followed by a 3k run.

There was also the opportunity for one competitor to do the whole thing or as pairs. Katy Campbell & Tony Peek both opted to do the whole thing whilst Karen Toffs & Michelle Selley entered the pairs with Karen doing the running & Michelle the cycle ride.

They all found it tough at the start with undulations in the run to the first transition area where it was a change of shoes to cycle ones before the cycle 20k route out of Killerton onto the main Broadclyst to Cullompton road.

First back for Honiton was Katy in 1 hr 28 min 58 sec. Second back was Tony in 1:36:33 with the duo of Karen & Michelle finishing in 1:47:56.
